Kiwanis Kid's Day Saturday To Feature Parade, Ice Cream

Kid's day, sponsored by Kiwanis International, will be celebrated Sat., Sept. 23 in Lemon Grove and in hundreds of other communities throughout the United States and Canada. Kids' Day events start here at 10 a.m. and will include free movies at the Grove Theater at 10 and again at 11:00, a parade at 1 p.m., and ice cream refreshments for everyone 14 years and under at Lemon Grove Junior High following the parade.

Robert E. Sutton, president of the Kiwanis Club, said that although this is the 13th annual observance of Kid's Day, it is only the seventh year of sponsorship exclusively by Kiwanis International and its member clubs throughout North America. He added that work on this 13th annual celebration is well under way, and it is expected that more clubs than ever will participate this year.

GILES CHAIRMAN
Plans for local activities were made by the committee in charge, Mr. Sutton said. He named Douglas Giles as chairman and A. E. "Bob" Howell, Lloyd Jefferies, Robert F. Burns, and Jack Durham as Kids' Day committee. All members of the Kiwanis Club will share in the project.

Kiwanis President Sutton pointed out that youth work has been a major aim of Kiwanis International throughout its 46 years. The Kids' Day program, one of Kiwanis' major events for youth, focuses attention on the Kiwanis year-round work.

Douglas Giles, chairman of the Kid's Day committee, indicated that further details will be available to youngsters thru the public and private schools in the area. He urged all citizens to support Kids' Day as they have in past years and join with other civic-minded residents of Lemon Grove in observing this day set aside especially for helping youth.

Turn Back The Clock

You'll get your sleep investment back starting Sunday but there'll be no dividend. You'll simply turn your clock back one hour when Pacific Standard Time returns to San Diego county.

Proper procedure is to make your clock read 1 a.m. at 2 a.m. Sunday. It is assumed that most persons will turn their clocks back as they retire Saturday night and sleep right on through the changeover.

Those who fail to heed the notice may turn up an hour early at church Sunday morning. Or even worse, they may report for work Monday an hour early with the embarrassment and chagrin that brings.

READY FOR THE PARADE! — Prepared for Saturday's big Kiwanis Kid's Day parade here in Lemon Grove are Bob Howell (left) and Lloyd Jefferies, who are on the Kiwanis Kid's Day Committee, Lisa and Danny Goodwin, who will be among the kids in the parade, Miss Rosita Samoya,

Miss Lemon Grove for 1961, parade queen, and Vicki and Leslie Jefferies, two more children who will be having a rollicking good time on Kid's Day this Saturday. All local kids are invited.—Staff Photo

Lemon Grove Fire Chief Gives Instructions On Fire Preparedness

What would you do if fire struck your home tonight? asks LG Fire Chief H. L. Hensley.

If you haven't a carefully prepared answer to that question, you and your family are taking an unwise gamble. And the odds are against you, for fires in homes take more than 6,000 lives each year, according to National Fire Protection Association figures.

"Planning ahead for fire emergencies in the home would prevent most of these tragic deaths," says Chief Hensley. He urges every family to prepare—and rehearse—a careful plan for escape. Here are pointers to follow:

1. Figure out at least two routes to the outside from every room in the house, especially bedrooms. Allow for blocking of stairways or hall by fire.

DOORS AID ESCAPE

2. Particularly for night-time fires, remember that closed bedroom doors will hold back flame and smoke, allowing extra time to escape.

3. For upper floor escape, use any available porch and garage roofs, ladders, or trees as ways down to safety. Be sure exit windows work easily, and especially that they are low and large enough to get through.

4. Pick an outside assembly point where the family will meet, and be sure everyone understands the rule "once out—stay out."

5. Know how to call the fire department, emergency number HO 6-4310, and do this as quickly as the house is clear of people.

6. Always remember that it's people, not possessions, which are of prime concern. Concentrate on getting everybody out of the house quickly; don't waste time trying to save valuables.

Big Weekend Slated At Cajon Speedway

This will be "M" weekend at the Cajon Speedway in El Cajon Valley. There will be motorcycle races on Friday, modifieds on Saturday and midgets on Sunday.

Several new records have been posted lately at Cajon Speedway.

A Park For Defense

The Lemon Grove Coordinating Council, in a letter to Robert McNamara, U. S. Secretary of Defense, suggests that the canyon in Monterey Heights, once planned as a park for the area, be considered as a community fall-out shelter.

Dr. Dennis McLaughlin, whose family origin is probably not far from that of the Family McNamara, is president of the Council and like as not, it was he who led the Council thinking on the request for defense use of the V-shaped canyon.

While Dr. McLaughlin's proposal certainly is steeped in sincere concern for local folk, we are just as sure that his enthusiasm didn't suffer simply because McNamara, like McLaughlin, is strictly from the Auld Sod.

Fellow Micks or not, the idea is not without merit. As the Council President points out: 1.) It (the canyon) affords a natural protection against blasts and radiation because of its V-shape; 2.) it is centrally located; 3.) It can be built without excavation, and 4.) it has already been mapped by an engineer.

Dr. McLaughlin properly points out, too, that roads cannot carry traffic away from S.D. in the event of the order to evacuate the area. He shows that huge quantities of food and water may be stored within the covered over canyon.

We think that his idea is a good one but not carried far enough. While the Monterey Heights site is a potential park, it is not one yet. We think that every park now existing could be excavated to provide shelter against fall-out and to provide a storage place for food and water. Parks are familiar places to most residents. Adults and children would have no problem in orienting themselves if an alert comes. There would be no large buildings to topple in the event of a nuclear blast, and park property is already in public domain so that acquisition costs

GOP Evaluation Meeting in L.G. Thursday Night

Republicans of the new 77th Assembly District will meet this week on Thursday to seek suitable candidates for the Calif. Legislature in 1962. The meeting will start at 8 p.m. in the L.G. Jr. high school auditorium.

The new District now comprises Lemon Grove, Spring Valley, Imperial Beach, San Ysidro, National City, parts of La Mesa, and as far southeast as Barrett Junction.

Three prospective candidates will speak and the audience will grade them under the sponsorship of the 77th District Republican Candidate Research Committee, according to C. E. Ollermann, Republican area chairman.

Meanwhile, tickets are available through Ollermann and other GOP members for the "Paul Revere" panel scheduled for Oct. 3rd at the Chula Vista Recreation Center.

Four Congressmen will provide the program which is designed to revitalize the party in an attempt to bring GOP control back to Congress.

Speakers will be Congressmen M. R. Laird of Wisconsin; S. B. Derouin of N.Y.; Peter Frelinghuysen, of N.J., and R. H. Mitchell of Illinois.

Tickets are $2.50 which include dinner and are available from Ollermann at the L.G. meeting or at 1563 Bakersfield, L.G., or by phoning him at HO 3-2532.

County To Get Plea On Lemon Grove Lighting

The L.G. chamber of commerce street lighting district program bogged down at a meeting Wednesday when the county road department announced that it would not give up its plans for an 18-foot center island plan when Broadway is improved. It bogged down on the question concerning parking.

Petitions had been signed by more than 60 per cent of the Broadway property owners between Olive and Grove street for forming a lighting district under provisions of a 1911 Improvement District Act. It was proposed that the 26 light standards would be placed at the curbs of the present sidewalks. County officials at the meeting questioned the legality of forming a district on private property. Diagonal parking now in use belongs to the property it fronts.

Dave Spear, county road commissioner, said that parking control curbs, six feet wide, would be installed between the road right-of-way and the present parking area and suggested that the standards be placed within the six-foot curbs.

Chamber Lighting District Chairman Harry Griffen asked that the county consider reducing the curb to three feet in width so as to provide extra space for one line of diagonal parking and a passageway for the parking public.

In effect, this would be "borrowing" three feet of driveway from the county.

In any event, installation of standards elsewhere than the sidewalk area would require protective curbs. The curbs would then become the eventual traffic control curbs, Griffen pointed out.

A poll of representatives at the meeting, all of whom favored the lighting district, showed that Chairman Griffen was to: 1.) get an opinion of legality from county counsel on forming a 1911 District on privately owned property; and 2.) ask the county road department for detailed plans for the forthcoming Broadway improvement in hopes that satisfactory negotiations would permit installing lights on a reduced-width traffic control barrier so as to utilize the most parking space possible.

The second possibility would be explored in the event it was not possible to use the 1911 Act for the sidewalk installation.

Council To Employ Service District Act

The L.G. Coordinating Council will summon the resources of the community to call for the formation of a bomb shelter district, Dr. Dennis McLaughlin has announced.

The meeting held Monday night on civil defense resulted in the Council authorizing its president, Dr. McLaughlin, to proceed with such a district under the provisions of a Communities Service Act. The Act is a latter day 1911 Improvement Act.

The Council district would provide shelters under the playgrounds of each Lemon Grove school and would develop the canyon in Monterey Heights once eyed as a recreation site, into a huge, covered warehouse where tons of food, water and medicine would be stored. (See Dimmer View this issue "A Park For Defense").

The Council's efforts will be coordinated with school and civil defense authorities.

The Council's District program would reduce the family confusion about children if a nuclear blast came during school hours, Dr. McLaughlin said. It would reduce the scurrying back-and-forth to a minimum during the period of high radiation, he said. He said that Russians already had shelters built for practically all of their people.

LAG IS DANGEROUS

"The shelter lag is as dangerous as the missile lag," he said.

McLaughlin last week wrote the Secretary of Defense regarding the Monterey Heights stockpile shelter. He read his letter at the meeting Monday.

The resolution for a bomb shelter district came after Hibbard Stubbs, director of L.G. civil defense gave an information talk on nuclear attack survival.

Stubbs pointed out that mass evacuation is no longer part of civil defense plans. Protection from post-radiation has become the main concern of defense officials, he said. A free course will be given on emergency survival beginning November 2, Stubbs announced.

In other business, the Council announced the start of plans for a program for senior citizens as soon as the new green-spot park begins to function.

Adults, Burglars In This Week's Crime Spotlight

With a whoop and a holler, a person suspected of being an overly happy patron of one of the nearby saloons, raced along the front of the L.G. Furniture store at 7340 Broadway ripping out a canvas sign as he went.

Art Helphand, store owner, told sheriff's deputies that he had suffered other and malicious mischief offenses including catsup being smeared on his building and trash being emptied at the front of his store.

The auto John G. Slack of 3516 James circle reported stolen Sept. 14 wasn't stolen at all; it was repossessed, he said. He had bought the car from a Lakeside man several days previously but failed to change the registration of ownership to his name.

When the car was gone on the morning he reported it he assumed it to be stolen, he said.

A blue and white Rocket bike belonging to Debra Heryford of 3920 Massachusetts ave., L.G. was reported stolen from the front yard of a nearby neighbor's house on Sept. 11.

YELLOW RUG OF BANCROFT

A yellow cotton rug valued at $10 was reported stolen from a dryer at 3534 Bancroft, S.V. It belonged to Mrs. Marie Elizabeth Bos of 3532 Bancroft, Apt. D, S.V.

PROWLERS BUSY

Mrs. Jean Fry of 449 Worthington, S.V. reported to sheriff's men that prowlers have been busy around her home during the early morning hours.

For the past two weeks the prowlers, whom she described, had attempted to gain entrance to her house while her husband was at work during the night. She called neighbors and finally the police.

SHERIFF BOOKS

THUNDERBIRD DRIVER

Raymond Earl Ahlefeld, 26, of 8631 Jamacha rd., S.V. was booked on a drunk-driving charge by sheriff's deputies after he was apprehended at Jamacha and Gillespie roads Sunday.

Ahlefeld, driving a blue Thunderbird, "burned out" of the parking area of George's Bar, Jamacha and Sweetwater roads and raced across a vacant lot where officers stopped him.

He became recalcitrant, abusive and profane, officers reported. He kicked the patrol door car shut on an officer and scratched the car with handcuffs used to induce him to get into the car.

DRAIN GRATES STOLEN

Two steel grates valued at $30 were taken from a storm basin near Conrad dr., and San Juan st. in S.V. according to Del Barber, foreman for the county road department.

WEAPON, DRINKING CHARGES LODGED

Two liquor bottles, a can of beer and a revolver are part of the evidence to be presented by the sheriff's department when Dean Edward Benter, 21, of 10851 Calavo dr., Spring Valley, is brought to trial.

Sheriff's deputies said that a witness reported Benter walking up Massachusetts street in-

Lemon Grove with the gun in his hand but later returned to his car. Deputies found the intoxicants, gun and holster on the front seat of the man's car. Benter refused to take the standard sobriety test and was charged on two counts: drunk driving and carrying a concealed weapon.

TRASH UNWANTED

Mrs. Jolene Sherlin Diehl, 8806 Crestmore, S.V., complained to the county health department that a car with an Oregon license has been dumping trash in a field at Crestmore and Carlsbad. Wind blows the trash over the neighborhood, she complains.

A series of burglaries in the S.V.-L.G. areas spiced the sheriff's department's week-end. In all cases, money alone appeared to be the object.

Burglars used a car axle to pry open the back door of Mack's Auto Wrecking shop at 7950 Imperial ave., L.G. They took about $27 from the cash register and a soft drink machine.

The cash box and all the stamps in a stamp box were taken from the Builders Supply Co., 9285 Birch st., S.V. according to Wallace Johnson, firm owner. His secretary found the office door ajar on Monday when she came to work. The door's hasp had been pried off.

Burglars gained entrance to Pat's L.G. Shell station, 8215 Broadway by crawling through a high window in the lube room. Coins were taken from a cigarette machine.

TENDER TIPS

E. C. Henderson of Lakeside, a plasterer who just finished a job at 9450 Tropic rd., S.V. is looking for the owner of five little fingers used to punch holes in the still goey walls within hours of the job's completion.

MISSILES LAUNCHED

A missile struck the windshield of the car being driven by Mrs. Marjorie C. Steverding near the 1500 block on Skyline dr. Sunday and broke a hole in the windshield. The incident occurred about 8 p.m. About the same time the pastor of the First Baptist Church on Carlisle st., Lomita Village reported to the sheriff's department that rocks were being thrown at his church. It happens every Sunday night, he said.

PSYCHO HEARING SET

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A psychiatric hearing at County Hospital was ordered for a Lemon Grove man who pleaded guilty Tuesday in Superior Court to molesting a 10-year-old Imperial Beach girl at her home.

Robert Claud Frazier, 28, of 7150 Broadway, L.G., was arrested Sept. 8, and charged with lewd and lascivious conduct.

Group's 'Secret Plan' To Enter LM-SV School District Fizzles Out

Parents Give Up For Now Getting Kids Into Rancho

Last week's "secret plan" of Spring Valley Estates 3 parents to get their children into Rancho Elementary School failed.

It was the second major attempt by the organized group to win the right to send their kids a few blocks rather than 10 miles to school.

Following the plan's failure, parents decided to give up trying to enroll their children at Rancho this semester.

Verne Watts, leader of the group, said Monday that they were "willing to accept this fantastic mistake for this year."

The children daily board buses for Vista Square School in Chula Vista, a 20-mile round-trip.

PARENTS RAISE $3,000

So fervent were parents about the situation that among them they raised $3,000 in a few days to give to the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District. This was to be in addition to what the Chula Vista School District offered LM-SV, and the total would have been mandated of the Chula Vista district. This "secret plan" soon fell flat. Offered the money, the LM-SV school district called the county legal department, which informed them that the procedure was not acceptable, according to assistant superintendent Ted Dixon.

The unwanted money was returned to donors, most of whom had contributed equally, according to Watts.

ANOTHER PETITION

But Watts said his group has completed another almost unanimous petition. It seeks to get their area annexed to the La Mesa-Spring Valley district and must pass both the county board of education and the county board of supervisors.

"We are not retreating (from the problem) but retrenching," Watts told this newspaper Monday. He said they want to get their children into Rancho School for the Spring semester if possible.

Animosity felt by parents toward Bollenbacher and Kelton, Inc., tract developers who are reported to have told buyers their children could attend Rancho School, could turn into legal action against the firm.

Watts declared that he was willing to "let what happened go by the board if the company will help the group." He said that he disagreed with the people who believe that any helpful action on the part of the firm would indicate an admission of guilt by the firm.

LAYS OFF WORK

He said the firm could be of aid through lending the assistance of their legal and secretarial staffs. Watts said that he has laid off work for five days to work on the community problem and that other parents had given the matter a lot of their time.

Watts said that there appears to be an organized faction within LM-SV school district seeking to keep his group out. He said the faction seemed to be "watching out for themselves."

PHONE CALLS COME

A series of calls, many anonymous, have been received lately by he and other of the parents, Watts said. Most of them, he explained, say that his group would be better off to stay in the Chula Vista district.

Despite the wave of disappointment which has engulfed the households which are near the Rancho school but slightly over the border-line of the school district, no one has moved away from the area because of the situation, Watts said.

'Cool Treatment' By Women Foils Knife-Carrying Bandit

by Betty Seymour

"We weren't scared. We didn't attempt to run or scream. We just looked the other way." These words by Mrs. Josephine Canaris sum up the cool manner in which two women handled an attempted armed robbery at the main branch of the Bank of America at Sixth street and Broadway in San Diego, on Monday, Sept. 18. Mrs. Canaris has been the express teller at the bank for the past five years. She lives at 1118 Stoneridge Court, Spring Valley.

"When I first saw the man rush up to the window I thought he was a customer wanting to be waited on in a hurry," Mrs. Canaris told a Review reporter. "Joyce Duneske was just turned from the window and I was talking to her. Joyce asked me if I knew the fellow. I looked at him and said 'Why no, don't you?' she said 'He's trying to hold me up.'"

"It did not dawn upon either of us it might be serious until we saw him pull a knife out of this paper bag and he said 'put the money in there. This is a holdup and I mean business.' We both thought he was a wise guy. A lot of them come through the bank trying to have fun with the girls."

"When I saw the man put his hand inside the bag, my curiosity made me look over at him and kind of raise my head to see what was in the bag. I thought he was pulling money to deposit. When I saw the knife though I really did not have any scare reaction. It might have been different, perhaps, if it had been a gun I saw coming out of that bag."

and he had said 'I will kill you.' Joyce was getting ready to give him the money and said to me 'what should I do?' I said just walk away."

The cool conduct of the two women and the quietude of the woman customer evidently so non-plussed the robber that he rushed away, deciding a quick lay away from the bank was the best out for him.

Mrs. Canaris said that a woman customer whom the man had shoved aside didn't say anything because she told them later that she thought he was clowning, the same as the tellers did at first. When he ran by her and scooted through the bank she said she knew he'd really meant business.

Robert Dingle, the operations officer and asst. cashier officer Richard Lee were called. It was hard to make them believe the man had tried to rob them. They were finally convinced and called the police.

Why is Russia setting off the A-bombs?

Walt Francis, freshman at Helix High School, 3833 Reja Tierra, Lemon Grove:

Walt Francis

"They're trying to keep things stirred up in the world. They want to show the U.S. that they can produce a bigger bomb than we can and are able to wipe us out whenever they wish. And they want the world to think they are superior to any other country."

In other words, Russian A-bomb testing is for propaganda purposes more than for scientific experiment. The Soviets keep saying they want peace, but the testing certainly doesn't show it."

Sandra Coleman, freshman at Mt. Miguel High School, 1533 Koe st., Lemon Grove:

Sandra Coleman

"Russia is testing A-bombs to try to bluff us out and they're seeing how far they can go without getting into a war. Also, they're trying to catch up with us in nuclear weapon development. I believe they are almost up with us."

"This subject has been under much discussion among the kids at school and also in my family. The general opinion seems to be that, regardless of why Russia is doing the testing, the U.S. should stand firm. The kids I know express a lot of confidence in our country's ability to look out for itself."

Bob Rosemary, major in oceanography and a freshman at Grossmont junior college, 1679

Bob Rosemary

Watwood rd., Lemon Grove: "I believe that Russia is trying to bluff us into backing down on the Berlin issue. Khrushchev is backed against a wall over Berlin, and if he backs down, he'll lose face among the smaller countries of the world."

"I think that the U.S. stay put. Our civics class at college discussed this matter. Opinion there generally was that the world situation between Russia and the U.S. is a standoff. Personally I'm not overly worried about the testing and think that partly Russia is carrying them out as a scientific experiment."

Linda Gudmundson, a nursing major and freshman at Grossmont College, 4832 Jesse, La Mesa:

LOCAL YOUNGSTERS VISIT COURT, JAIL WHILE VACATIONING

Dr. and Mrs. William Unglicht and their sons of 2615 Grove st., Lemon Grove, recently spent a month at the Riverdale Motor Inn, one of New York's largest and newest motels, situated in Riverdale, New York.

An interesting sidelight of their visit to the big city was a personally conducted tour for their sons, to the Bronx county jail and courthouse, which was arranged by the Inn's social director. The Unglicht boys, Gary, 10, and Keith, 6, visited several court rooms which were in session and later, were introduced to the district attorney of the Bronx and his staff. They were then shown the Bronx jailhouse.

'Adventure' Is Theme Of Eighth Harvest Ball

Plans have been completed for the eighth annual Harvest Ball of the Grossmont Hospital Women's Auxiliary, to be held at the Hotel del Coronado, October 7, according to the general chairman, Mrs. P. D. Engstrand.

The "Harvest of Adventure" theme, symbolizing the girls' adventure into community service, will hark back to the Court of King Arthur, and the Knights of the Round Table. Dinner will be served at 7:30. The presentation ceremony will begin at 9. The girls in full length white dresses will enter the ballroom escorted by their fathers.

Thirty-six provisional members will be presented as representatives of the entire Hospital District. The number has grown with each presentation since the first Ball in November, 1954. The ceremony, although an important social event, was primarily designed by its founders to point up the community service purpose for which the Auxiliary exists.

Daughters of auxiliary members to be eligible for presentation at the ball must be juniors in high school at the time of application, but seniors by the time of presentation. They must participate in a provisional indoctrination and seminar training program where hospital and auxiliary procedures and ethics are explained and hospital careers are discussed. They must then complete a five month period of service to the hospital. After their presentation they become Junior members of the Auxiliary. This year, the Junior membership has given 1948 hours of volunteer service to the hospital.

Uterine Cancer Target Of Junior Woman's Club

The American Cancer Society has announced the launching of a "Conquer Uterine Cancer" program in cooperation with the Lemon Grove Women's Club Juniors in Lemon Grove.

The program is being carried out nationally in cooperation with the General Federation of Women's Clubs, according to Dr. D. A. DeSanto, Education Chairman of the Society's San Diego County Branch.

"The goal of this program is about 14,000 women die each year in the United States from uterine cancer. "Most of these deaths are unnecessary," he said. "They occur when diagnosis and treatment are too late."

Locally the "Conquer Uterine Cancer" drive is being organized by Mrs. Warren L. Peterson, in charge of the project for the Lemon Grove Woman's Club Juniors.

Primary objective of this life-saving program, the Society said, "will be to get every participating clubwoman in Lemon Grove to have a health check-up and a uterine cell examination as the first step toward a lifelong habit of annual health examinations as a safeguard against cancer."

Every local club reporting that 100 per cent of its members the eventual control of uterine cancer," Dr. De Santo said. Abership has had a uterine cell examination will receive an honor citation from the American Cancer Society.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Again the taxpayers of the La Mesa-Spring Valley school district are asked for a "yes" vote on another bond issue in spite of the fact that school employees listed 19 classrooms not used for school classes last year just after we were informed through a newspaper that there were no unused rooms.

We are asked to increase the already exorbitant tax rate. Why does the administration consider this necessary? Because they are evidently desperate in their desire to hold together the highly-overstaffed administrative branch. Calif. Teacher Federation president says: "Ratio of teachers to administrators has dropped from 27 to 1 to 7 to 1." S.D. Union Dec. 28, 1960.

Predominant opinions of some of the voters polled were: "That board members who strayed from the beaten path by timidity mentioning economy, have, to all appearances, been put back in line as other members before them."

"If all the deadwood (unnecessary personnel) was removed, a much lower tax rate would be adequate, provided, a program of purchasing only bare necessities was followed, a better grade of education could result."

Your tax money is spent on landscape gardeners; a photographer with expensive cameras; a general co-ordinator; art, music and health co-ordinators; on electric kilns, clay and ceramics paints, shrubbery, trees and fancy rock gardens.

This is not a criticism of teacher, principal or nurse. The big job holders who think up non-essential projects and who maintain an over-populated white collar staff are at fault.

Many are underpaid while tax money is wantonly wasted on such things as: movie projectors and equipment, $17,000; two tape recorders, $5,000; film inspection machine, $2,650; print copying machine, $1,795 and other items equally astounding. This same money could be used to give your child a solid education economically. Vote as your conscience dictates.

Dear Editor:

Your newspaper has a letter to the editor from time-to-time criticizing schools, school board members, or the administration.

Where are the parents and people who really care about the type of schools a community has?

Aren't there just a few people who will answer these crackpots who try to make you believe they are watching your tax dollars when really the true basis for their spouting off is some petty personal grudge?

If you read your papers through the year and back through the years, you will find the same characters are always against something. The only thing they are united for is to be "against!"

A few people who care have banded together and call themselves the Committee to Keep Good Schools, borrowed a building and equipment and set up headquarters at 8533 La Mesa Blvd.

Volunteers are manning the office. They are just plain ordinary taxpayers citizens who want to keep the kind of schools they have worked through the years to achieve.

Some of the people are parents of school children - some are grandparents, and some have never had any children - but all are united "for good schools."

If you are an old-timer and have forgotten why this community wanted good schools or if you are a newcomer and don't understand the financing of a school district, drop into the committee's headquarters and get true facts and information from people who have no axes to grind.

would not be a problem.

Let's End Censorship

Practically every person who visits Germany, even for a few days, becomes an expert on whether we should fight for Berlin or not. These experts' opinions vary from persons to person on whether we should carry against Communist leaders a sword or an umbrella.

The one thing they all say in common is that the Germans are utterly relaxed while citizens of the U.S. are stewing about world affairs.

What is the difference between us and the Germans . . . the latter who are on the line where two opposing philosophies meet?

Let us tell you! The difference is frustration.

The difference is in ratio to the number of communists in U.S. government. We suspect some of them to be in the State department. These persons, whoever they are, are apparently determined to frustrate Americans into submitting to Russian demands.

Look at two situations being discussed presently in Congress. Major General Edward A. Walker was removed from his post in Germany because of "excessive patriotism." This is part of the Pentagon's program of muzzling the men who must think and talk about the enemy in order to know how best to fight him. Yet, here is one of America's really fine field officers, quieted as effectively as though communists had already taken over the military and were giving the orders.

And the charge of being patriotic is just too idiotic for any red-blooded American to understand. Surely we shall have a public hearing to ascertain how any American can become "too patriotic!"

Then there is the case of Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara who has instituted a program of censorship among our leaders. By so doing, he is giving the communists a huge victory. Censorship is of American utterances. There is no censorship of Russian material released for American consumption. Therefore, we will get a regular Russian brainwashing without compensatory American refutation. That makes it an easy Russian victory.

Then, McNamara had the audacity to ask the Senate investigators to suppress evidence that anti-communist statements have been censored.

There can be no reason for such a request except guilt. These leaders ask our men to give their lives for their country, and for freedom. Yet, these leaders would betray us by keeping us uninformed via censorship.

What do they want to keep from us except those things that would stir us patriotically? Does it follow that the only thing standing between our submission to Russia is our patriotism, weakened though it be?

To hell with the Pentagon and Robert McNamara! Let's stand and show our American patriotism whenever the opportunity presents itself . . . and let's end censorship and revert to our Constitutional Rights.

For your information, McNamara's and the Pentagon's censorship would deny you reading this article.

AREA DEMOCRATS TO SEE FILM ON PRECINCT WORK

The meeting will feature a film on "Precinct Work—Politics Among Your Neighbors," and commentary by Joseph Tausch, co-chairman of the Dollars for Democrats Drive, September 22 to October 2 and chairman of the County Democratic Precinct Organization.

Let's Help Our Youngsters

There is a dramatic drop-off in crime news this week locally.

One of our friends in the sheriff's department attributes this happy circumstance to the starting of school. Youngsters, otherwise occupied, are less prone to get into trouble, is the theory, and directing their energy toward school activities seems to bear out this belief. That's exactly what we've been preaching for years.

Every summer, youngsters full of energy, are turned out on the community for three months. Comparatively few are directed into a summer-long program; even fewer find work to accommodate their energy and their need for funds.

Unions, which are a major force in today's society, have seen to it that youngsters have little chance to put their energy to profitable work. This was started two generations ago when there was a very real threat of youngsters becoming broken to the wheel of industry. Today, the labor laws being what they are, the youngsters horse around most of the summer, many getting into trouble while so doing.

Child labor laws of today were superinduced by employers of a half a century ago, and before, who used cheap child labor instead of adults. Unions had long bewailed the prostituting of tender little boys and girls to work in the giant factories being developed in the era when America was just beginning to flex its industrial muscles. This danger no longer exists, and we are not at all sure that it was a contribution of the unions as much as a sense of responsibility of latterday industrial leaders that finally brought about the change.

Be that as it may, there are few youngsters today able to find vacation work because employers are so regimented by the union-sponsored laws that even hiring those youngsters classified as employables has certain hazards.

Since unions are responsible for much of the legislation regarding employment of the young it would seem that they would take the next logical step and sponsor legislation by which there would be a freer market of employment of youngsters so that much of the energy used in getting into trouble could be more profitably channeled. Youthful crime, mostly, is a by-product of the present stringent legislation.

Toward the end of handling the by-product, the California Youth Authority this year has acquired a state appropriation of $21,614,563 to care for a ward increase of 20 per cent. These are the energy-driven youngsters under discussion in the preceding paragraphs.

We hold that the difference between being a ward of the Youth Authority and becoming a stalwart respected young citizen for many of these youngsters is frequently a summer job.

El Capitan, Grossmont High Are Schools 'Most Likely' In 1961 League Scramble

by Bill Ott

In the 1961 Grossmont District League football scramble El Capitan of Lakeside and Grossmont High are tabbed as the teams to beat for the championship of the newly formed league. Helix, El Cajon, and Granite Hills are listed as the teams who will field teams that could pull the title "out of the fire." Above are listed five of the seven teams in the league. Omitted were Mount Miguel and first year Monte Vista.

The Miguel team is definitely in a rebuilding process, but with a few breaks could win the tough games. The Monarchs of Monte Vista would be classified as the "sleeper" team of the league.

The new team under the head coaching of Doug Gorrie and assistants Boyd Barrett and Marv Lacey have five lettermen from last year's CIF Champion Mt. Miguel team. The Monarchs will field a strong first team, but will have a weak bench, and with some breaks could be a contender for the loop crown. Forming the nucleus of the Monarch team are:

Sam Rubottom a 6 ft 1 in. 185 lb. end, and Pat Curran, 5 ft. 11 in. 180 lb. who will play the other end position; leading the team at quarterback is Ron Maki, 5 ft. 6 in. 140 lb. Maki was at the controls when the Matadors scored their touchdown against Helix last year and downed them 6-0. Versatile Ron Scagliotti will be at halfback and will be a defensive back. Scagliotti stands at 5 ft. 11 in. and weighs 165 lbs. Bill Grey who was a line-man at Mount Miguel has moved to fullback, and is reported to be handling the job quite well.

Others who will see action in the Monarchs split-T formation will be Harry Weitzel, end; Leon Parker and Jim Etherton at tackles; John Melega and Merton Maki filling the guard spots; Bill Pierce and Clint Spooner will be battling for the center job; Eddie Lesh, Martin Fitzurka, Jim Raines, and Ron Westcott will be contenders for the open halfback job.

The Monte Vistans mix with Grossmont in the Carnival Friday night, and will open their season Friday night, Sept. 29.

'Reality' Christian Science Sunday Sermon Topic

A substantial foundation for assured thought and action will be pointed out in the Lesson Sermon on "Reality" at all Christian Science services on Sunday. Keynoting the sermon is the Golden Text from Philippians (4:18) "Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think of these things."

Bible citations in the sermon include Paul's counsel to the Colossians (3:16), "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord."

CONSCIENTIOUSLY YOURS

The prescription your doctor writes may call for numerous ingredients.

These must be compounded precisely — measured, weighed, powdered, sometimes heated, sometimes chilled and ultimately blended into a medicine.

Your pharmacist must be exactly right with his grams, cubic centimeters, percentages and other scientific guideposts.

During the process, to the exclusion of all else, we are in every way — conscientiously your servant.

ing a communications satellite of a new, more advanced type. They hope to see the new one launched sometime early next year.

This is just one of the ways telephone people are working to provide better communication links between the U.S. and countries overseas.

A new kind of phone system is now getting its first field test by the Bell System. It's an experimental Electronic Central Office designed to give you even faster, more versatile telephone service.

For example, if you were going out for the evening, you could have calls to your home transferred to wherever you're going.

Phone numbers you call frequently could be given abbreviated code numbers so you could reach them by dialing just two numerals.

This experimental Electronic Central Office is another example of the continuing search to make your telephone service still better in the years to come.

NEED A PROGRAM?

September heralds the return from vacations, back to school, and the reconvening of many clubs and associations. As a reminder to all program chairmen, P.T.A. groups, clubs, churches or other organizations, we offer a large selection of educational and informational films and lecture demonstrations. Of course, there is no charge for these special services.

All you need to do is call the Business Office, Hopkins 6-3200, and I'll be glad to take care of all the details; or will mail out a pamphlet listing most of our programs and films for your selection.

'Good Deed' Of Troop 47 Is Bancroft Bike Rack

Professor Studying Life Of Senator From Ohio

Permission to inspect the personal files of letters and papers of John Sherman, senator from Ohio during the reconstruction period of our nation's history, was given by the family to Thomas Ruth, who is on the faculty of the Grossmont College.

During summer Mr. Ruth was at work in the library of Congress in Washington, D.C., compiling materials which will be used for his doctorate from the University of California.

His work in Washington was financed by the Committee on Research of the University of California and the Woodrow Wilson Foundation.

Mr. Ruth regards himself as a good example of the value of a junior college opportunity in education, since he started his college career at the College of Sequoias, and then moved with success into the University of California from which he graduated Phi Beta Kappa with highest honors in

HALF-DAY SESSIONS REDUCED IN STATE

SACRAMENTO — California public schools have cut half day sessions to their lowest point in 10 years, the State Department of Education reported today.

Department specialists estimated some 90,000 students will be in double sessions while others will be in single sessions month—22 per cent of the statewide enrollment of 3,648,900.

In San Diego County last year, there were 5,263 pupils in half-day sessions. Statewide the total included 86,803 in elementary schools and 7,149 in high schools.

YOUTH ORCHESTRA STARTS REHEARSAL

Rehearsals began Sept. 16 at Mt. Miguel High School for the Civic Youth Orchestra conducted by Lawrence K. Christian, head of Miguel's music department.

He said there are still vacancies in the orchestra. Persons who would like to audition should call Mrs. H. W. Rubottom, HO 6-8144.

Spring Valley Boy Scouts of Troop 47, and several of their leaders, have turned in another "good deed." For several months they had it in mind to build a bicycle rack for the Bancroft Elementary School, that school sorely in need of one due to the increase in attendance. This week the job was completed and the rack presented to the school's student council. Jim Rich, senior patrol leader of troop 47, presented the rack to Jim Belchamber, student council president. The pipe for the rack was furnished by Howard Takahashi, the hooks made by Mike Fitzurka and the welding done by Leo Horak (all adults); the sanding and painting was done by the scouts.

BUILDING GROUP READIES FALL-OUT SHELTERS

In response to numerous requests from its many property-owning members, the Home Owners Assn. now is offering an economical, approved Fall-out Shelter for homes throughout San Diego County. Gerald L. Anchor, association director, announces.

The association, in its report to the public, points out that the Fall-out Shelters, available through its organization, are so constructed that they are barely perceptible to the observer, and will not mar the natural beauty of home surroundings.

FOLK MUSIC SINGERS COMING TO LA JOLLA

The board met recently to discuss plans for the coming school year under the leadership of the president, Mrs. J. C. Gomes.

Now is the time when your roses are making new wood so, if you want long stems and good blossoms for the fall blooming season, give the roses a feeding now in September. This should be the last feeding until after the first of the year when you do your pruning.

To protect your roses from the beetles and other "chewers" that seem more prevalent late in the season and cause ragged looking foliage, you can safely use a combination of malathion and dieldrin as necessary. Alternate this with the regular 2-purposes rose spray for mildew, black spot, thrip and aphids. A copper spray containing nicotine is excellent. By doing this you will keep all enemies under control.

If we have our usual mild California winter, you will probably be able to pick beautiful roses until New Years, if you give them proper care and

To close the summer reading program officially, a story hour was conducted at the library on Saturday morning, Sept. 16, with Kathleen McMullen reading. There will be another hour on Sat., Sept. 23 from 10:30-11 a.m., and all children are invited to attend.

Andrea Zubricky has been in charge of the bulletin board decoration and the room displays of books, and also acted as library aid during the summer. Much credit goes to her for her good work, said Mrs. Williams.

Mrs. Williams invites people in the community to come in and use the library.

Who Doesn't And Who Does Oppose School Bond Election

Why all the fuss about the school bond and tax election coming up on October 10? This seems to be the question of the month. The reason is the opposition to this need for schools and funds, some sporadic, some organized. Oh, not by the parents who are getting gray fast due to the distance their children must walk and the dangerous streets they must cross on their way to school, since there aren't enough funds for buses, and no school within reasonable distance.

Not the parents of those children who dropped out of school at a young age, perhaps due to the crowded classrooms and who might have gone on to finish their education if their teachers had those extra minutes to devote to the child who needs it. Certainly not by those who realize that in the not too far distant future we will be looking to this generation for our scientists, astronomers, leaders, nurses or doctors.

TOO MUCH TO SPEND?
No, those who oppose this need are the ones who feel that $12 to $15 a year (that's all it'll cost you), is too much to spend on education. Perhaps they'd rather spend that and more on juvenile courts and in unemployment costs. Also there are those who call modern education a "frill". After all, they did all right without one. I wonder if they'd still be with us if not for the wonders of science and medicine; brought to us certainly not by the uneducated. Then there are those who are standing in the way of your children's welfare (and this was so unbelievable I had to check the facts) out of spite. A school contract that wasn't gotten or lost a position are reason enough for this type.

SOME DON'T REALIZE
Last, but not least, are those who live in a section of our district where there is adequate school facilities. I'm afraid they don't realize the effect this election will have on them, for the same funds must cover the entire district. If this election fails, and even the thought of it makes me shiver, it would mean that there would be even less money than there is now, and it will have to cover more territory. Think about it.

Who Doesn't And Who Does Oppose School Bond Election
Why all the fuss about the school bond and tax election coming up on October 10? This seems to be the question of the month. The reason is the opposition to this need for schools and funds, some sporadic, some organized. Oh, not by the parents who are getting gray fast due to the distance their children must walk and the dangerous streets they must cross on their way to school, since there aren't enough funds for buses, and no school within reasonable distance.

Not the parents of those children who dropped out of school at a young age, perhaps due to the crowded classrooms and who might have gone on to finish their education if their teachers had those extra minutes to devote to the child who needs it. Certainly not by those who realize that in the not too far distant future we will be looking to this generation for our scientists, astronomers, leaders, nurses or doctors.

TOO MUCH TO SPEND?
No, those who oppose this need are the ones who feel that $12 to $15 a year (that's all it'll cost you), is too much to spend on education. Perhaps they'd rather spend that and more on juvenile courts and in unemployment costs. Also there are those who call modern education a "frill". After all, they did all right without one. I wonder if they'd still be with us if not for the wonders of science and medicine; brought to us certainly not by the uneducated. Then there are those who are standing in the way of your children's welfare (and this was so unbelievable I had to check the facts) out of spite. A school contract that wasn't gotten or lost a position are reason enough for this type.

News and Views from Spring Valley

Poisonous Things Should Be Kept Away From Children

Several young children of Our Valley in the past few months have had the misfortune to swallow pills, house-cleaning detergents and other foreign matter which have sent them to local doctors or hospitals. A few of them have nearly reached the point of death. Just last week, a two-year old was taken to Grossmont hospital after swallowing an unknown liquid.

A lot of credit for saving these youngsters should go to the ambulance crew of the Spring Valley fire department for these fellows are trained for such emergencies; a service the local taxpayers get along with the fire department.

Parents should keep all types of fluids locked up or at least out of the reach of babes. And medicines should be in a safe place away from the young ones. An interesting bit of information along this line comes from the University of Calif. It is reprinted below.

LETHAL PRODUCTS EVERYWHERE

Every year approximately 600,000 children swallow household aids . . . and about 500 children die as a result. This is a U.S. Public Health Service estimate. So warning, caution, and danger are words you will see on the labels of some of the products used in every American home. Yes, dangerous products are even in your home!

There has been a law which requires poison labels, but it specified labels on only 12 caustic and corrosive substances. Here is a case where the law did not keep pace with the parade of products we see growing on our market shelves.

Sometimes after accidental use of a product the container was available but the label gave the physician no information as to its contents. Immediate first aid treatment was impossible. Delay sometimes meant the difference between life and death.

So a new Federal law went into effect on Aug. 1. The medical profession, and Food and Drug Administration, and chemical and manufacturing firms recognized that a strong law was needed. The 1927 law was as outmoded as the butte and much less useful! The new Federal Hazardous Substances Labeling Act was passed last July. Californians are protected additionally by a similar state law.

WHAT IS THE LAW?

Don't be surprised if some of the products used regularly in your home come in with new labels. All this is for your protection.

This consumer protective legislation requires of the manufacturer more rigid labeling, and labeling of many more products than were covered by the old law. It stipulates that the danger warning be conspicuous and prominently displayed. The label must carry a clearly-understood statement of the precise hazard of that product, the precautionary measures to be followed or avoided in its use, and instructions when appropriate for first aid treatment. The word POISON for any highly toxic substance must be shown. If the product requires a special handling or storage this information must appear along with the statement KEEP OUT OF THE REACH OF CHILDREN, or equivalent.

The purpose of the warning is to caution at the time of sale, at time of storage, and at time of use.

All these requirements are rigid, but Congress believed them necessary.

Taylor's Visit Texas Before 'Carla' Does

Although school has started again and the parents of Our Valley are concentrating all their efforts on the children's schooling, still the memories of the summer vacations still linger. A few families are still reporting interesting trips.

Mrs. and Mrs. (Rolan and Ruth) Taylor, over at 8780 Lamar st., along with the daughter and her husband, and Joe Bonaventuras of Central ave., returned home recently from a trip to Texas before Carla, "big blow." They were right in Corpus Christi. They visited several relatives; one being Mrs. Taylor's mother, Mrs. Nettie Hale, who was a visitor to Our Valley for a while. She sends her best regards to all her local friends.

Our local travelers were also in Christoval, Tex., where they were visited by Mrs. Taylor's brother and sister-in-law, former San Diego residents, who now live in Corpus Christi. Other places of interest were Abilene, Odessa and View. Most of the Taylor touring was at night, thereby eliminating heavy traffic. The weather was fine except for some rain and one hail storm.

Mrs. Taylor said they were intrigued with the green fields and hills, and the large herds of cattle; mostly white-face, although there are a few Angus and Brahmas.

Trip Takes In U.S. and Canada

Mr. and Mrs. (Ivar and Ruth) Peterson and son John, all of 3036 So. Bonita, spent three weeks touring parts of Canada and the East Coast and back via the central part of the U.S. They went east via Highway 66. They stopped in Clairmore, Okla., where they visited the Will Rogers Memorial. From there they went on to Chicago, and then to Dearborn, Mich., where they had the opportunity to go through the Ford Motor plant, even taking a ride in a test car.

The Canada part of their trip took them through Ontario; a green and beautiful part of N. America. They visited Queen Victoria Park and saw the Canadian side of Niagara Falls. They were especially intrigued with the various-colored tobacco sheds of Canada.

STOPOVER IN MASS.

Coming into the U.S. they headed for Mass., where at Waterbury, they stayed five days with Mrs. Peterson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wester. While in Massachusetts they say many of the historical spots around Boston and Plymouth. They even went aboard the Mayflower No. 2, and saw one of the summer stock shows held in a tent, with the stage in the center.

On their return trip the Petersons took a guided bus tour of the Indianapolis Speedway, where they saw all the places where the cars are repaired, he pits and other points of interest. They also stopped by Washington, D.C. and listened to a band concert on the back steps of the White House.

The weather both going and returning was ideal, Mrs. Peterson said, except for a little rain. The hottest spot on the trip was at Needles, Calif., where it got up to 114 degrees.

The 1962 Ford Galaxie line features a crisp, fresh approach to Ford's classic styling. Shown here is the Galaxie 500 Sunliner convertible, one of twelve models in the Galaxie line. While the new Galaxie is slightly shorter and fractionally narrower than the 1961 model, the large passenger compartment is the same as 1961. Large door openings, coupled with Ford's convenient two-position door stops, make entering and leaving the Galaxie an easy and natural movement. The Sunliner top is anchored at each roof bow to prevent "ballooning" when underway. The vinyl-lined top is stowed under a color-keyed boot.

Civil Defense: A Series

HOW TO FIGHT FIRE AT HOME

An enemy attack on your city will start many more fires than your local fire department can handle. Fighting fires in your home or neighborhood will be up to you.

Knowing how to fight a fire can save your life and the lives of your family. It can save your home and your neighbor's home, or even your part of the city. It can keep a small fire from growing into a big one.

Householders in England, many of them women, successfully fought fires in World War II. Sometimes bombs started fires in every house on a street, yet every house was saved.

PROCEDURE

Training, tools and plenty of practice are the basis for good fire fighting. Drills should be held by your family. Give each member certain duties, and see that they learn to work as an efficient team. Change assignments from time to time so that everyone in your home gains a working knowledge of all the fire-fighting jobs.

1. As soon as possible after enemy attack, you will want to check your house to see if fires have started. Appoint an inspector and helper for this task. Starting at your shelter, time how long it takes them to reach the attic and work down. Make sure halls and stairways are cleared of obstacles, and kept clear.

2. Find out how long it would take to get water to your attic if it were a fire. Appoint a fire-fighting team and time them in their job of getting the hose into place. Your garden hose, with adapters which allow you to couple the hose to your kitchen or bathroom faucet, should reach all parts of your house.

SAND AND WATER

3. If the water supply fails, your hose will be useless. You should have a hand water pump for such emergencies. Check the time it takes to carry it to your attic and to the other parts of the house. Also time how long it takes to get there with buckets of water or sand. If it takes too long—more than two minutes—distribute more buckets for emergency use, and keep them filled and covered.

4. Searching for a missing person in a wrecked and burning building should not be done by one person alone. Teamwork is always better and safer. To conduct a practice search, appoint two members of your family as a demonstration team and hide a supposed "victim" in an out-of-the-way part of the house. People who become confused and frightened in an emergency, especially children, often hide under beds or in closets. Have your search team look in every room and in every possible hiding place.

WATCH HOT DOORS

5. If a door is hot to the touch, the searcher may expect to find fire or heated gases when he opens it. Smoke explosions often occur where air comes in contact with such gases. Whether the door opens toward or away from the searcher, he must have some protection against the explosion or heat when the door is opened. He should turn the doorknob, push (or pull) and duck to one side behind the wall. This will protect the searcher from flames or explosive gases.

6. Everyone in your family should know how to get away from a fire if it gets out of control, without getting trapped. To escape from a smoke-filled room, tie a handkerchief, moist if possible, or other cloth across the mouth and nose. Then drop to the floor and crawl on your hands and knees, as close to the wall as possible. Follow the wall around to the door if you cannot see where you are going. A blindfold will make this practice more realistic.

DROP FROM WINDOW

7. If you can't get down the second-floor stairs, you may have to hang by your hands from a window sill, then drop. An adult can cut his fall by about 7 feet if he lowers himself from a window as far as he can before letting go. Have one of the youngest members of the family demonstrate this drop from a low or ground-floor window, to show how it works.

8. If you are caught on a second or third floor, you can tie sheets together with square knots and secure one end of your improvised rope to a radiator pipe or heavy piece of furniture. Then drop the other end out of the window and climb or slide down. You may not be able to reach the ground this way, but you will be that much closer to it when you drop, with less chance of hurting yourself. Demonstrate only the knot-tying part of this exercise. This method of escape is dangerous but your family should know about it in case of emergency.

PRACTICE

Now that you have learned the main things that can be done to fight fire in your home, or to escape from it, get the family together for a review of the procedures. Select one spot in the house and assume that a fire has started there. Make sure that everyone understands the problem.

1. Next, have each member of the family go through his or her fire-fighting assignment in turn, while the others watch. Try to find quicker and better ways to carry out each task.

2. Talk over the most likely ways of attacking, confining, and putting out fires in other parts of the house, and in various materials such as curtains, furniture, stored clothes, and so on.

3. Check your fire-fighting equipment. You can't fight a fire with a broken ladder, a rusty water pump, a leaky hose, or empty fire extinguishers. Be sure you have stored supplies of water and sand in convenient locations.

4. See that everyone in your family reads, as soon as possible, OCDM booklet PB-4, Fire Fighting for Householders.

SCSC Fitness Course To 'Decelerate' Aging

A fitness program, tailored for the 35 to 55-year-old man whose daily life offers too little physical activity will be offered at San Diego State during the fall and spring semesters.

The twice-weekly evening course aims at improving general health and fitness, encouraging relaxation and building resistance to fatigue.

There is evidence, according to Dr. Fred Kasch, professor of physical education and director of the course, that the program also has a "profoundly favorable effect on the cardiovascular system and serves generally to decelerate the aging process."
